Barbwire

Southern California's Country Cover Band

About

Barbwire is a country cover band from Southern California playing a mix of current country hits, red dirt country anthems, time-tested classics, and a touch of American rock.

Their shows center on strong vocals, an engaging stage presence, and an upbeat performance style built to get people on their feet and keep the room moving. The set moves comfortably between chart-driven modern country and songs that nod to the genre's roots, giving buyers a clear sense of range without losing the country focus.

For venues and events looking for a country band with broad crowd appeal, Barbwire offers a versatile live set with familiar material, steady energy, and a performance style aimed at singing along, dancing, and keeping audiences involved from start to finish.
