About

Beach St. A GoGo! is a 6-person, family-friendly event band based in Valley Village, California, performing live 1960s hits with a broad, danceable set. The group was originally formed in Florida in 2011 by founder and lead singer TJ Rosenman, then carefully recast on the West Coast in 2017.

The band performs for festivals, corporate events, private functions, social clubs, VFWs, restaurants with entertainment, weddings, nightclubs, and car shows. Shows are built to be flexible for different event formats, with one-, two-, and three-hour options available.

The song list focuses on familiar 1960s favorites chosen for listening, dancing, and sing-alongs, while steering away from the more psychedelic side of the decade. Nearly every song is a Billboard Top 10 or #1 hit from the 1960s top 100, with music from The Beatles, The Beach Boys, Elvis, 60s girl groups, one-hit wonders, Motown, and more.

Rather than centering on a single artist, Beach St. A GoGo! covers close to 50 hits in a three-hour show, drawing from more than 40 bands and singers that helped define the era. For buyers who want a full-decade format instead of a single-artist tribute, the set is designed to keep the material varied and recognizable from start to finish.

Shows can include costume changes, audience participation, and stories about the bands and songs.

The set is built for multi-generational audiences, from younger listeners to guests who rarely get the chance to hear the music of their youth played live.
