Gold Rush Country

Where Country Gets Loud – The Heart of Nashville with a SoCal Kick!

About

Gold Rush Country is a Southern California contemporary country band with male and female lead vocals, a driving rhythm section, tight vocal harmonies, and standout instrumental playing. The band brings together classic rock-style showmanship and the feel of today's Top 40 country, with a set built to keep the room moving all night.

Gold Rush Country has appeared in concert with Little Big Town, Kacey Musgraves, Toby Keith, Carey Underwood, Cowboy Troy, Jaron and The Long Road To Love, Kixx Brooks (Brooks & Dunn), Eddie Money, Justin Moore, Rodney Atkins, Josh Thompson, Sunny Ledfurd, Eden's Edge, John Pardi, and Charlie Worsham.

The band regularly headlines community concerts including the LA County Fair, Calabasas Pumpkin Festival, Los Angeles Pershing Square, Lakewood 9.11 Concert, and the Lake Arrowhead Summer Concert Series. National venue appearances include The Canyon Club, Harrah's Reno, Toby Keith's, Gilley's Las Vegas, Monte Carlo Las Vegas, Harrah's Las Vegas, and The Riviera Las Vegas, along with corporate events.

In recent years, Gold Rush Country has primarily focused on corporate and private events and select summer concert series. The live show is built for active crowds, with the band keeping the pace up as guests dance, two step, sing along, and stay engaged from start to finish.
