GRL PWR

GRL PWR

About

GRL PWR is a live concert show built around iconic songs made famous by legendary female artists from the 1950s to today. The performance features three female performers backed by an all-live band, bringing together hits associated with artists including Aretha Franklin, Tina Turner, Madonna, and Adele.

The show blends live vocals, harmonies, choreography, and synchronized dance routines with a broad song selection that moves across eras and styles. From classic soul in the '60s to pop anthems from the '80s and chart-topping songs of today, GRL PWR is designed as a high-energy set with strong visual movement and a steady pace.

At its core, GRL PWR is a celebration of female strength, resilience, and artistry through well-known songs that connect across generations. The focus is on recognizable material, group performance, and a live-band feel that keeps the show engaging from start to finish.

GRL PWR is a fit for corporate events, festivals, and private parties looking for a female-focused concert format with familiar repertoire, live instrumentation, and choreographed staging.
