Jazmine Rogers Band

Jazmine Rogers Band

About

Jazmine Rogers is a singer, dancer, model, and actor with roots in school choirs and local musical theater. Born in Memphis, Tennessee, and the third of six children, she later moved to California as a military child before beginning her professional career.

She performs with various highly sought-after bands and is a repeat choice for National Anthem performances. Local sports teams that have requested her multiple times include the San Diego Padres, San Diego Gulls, and Los Angeles Dodgers.

Her credits also include winning Campus Superstar 2016 and the Grand Prize at Oceanside's Got Talent 2017. For buyers, that adds up to a performer with live experience, strong event-readiness, and a track record of being asked back for high-visibility appearances.
