Metalachi

About

Based in Los Angeles, Metalachi has performed across the US, Canada, and Mexico, playing settings that range from small local bars to major events. Their live appearances include Heavy Montreal, Megacruise, and Monsters of Rock Cruise.

The show blends folk influences with rock, pairing metal covers from acts such as Metallica with classic mariachi associated with Vicente Fernandez and Mariachi Vargas de Tecalitlan. Comedic interludes and skits are part of the set, giving the performance a clear novelty angle alongside the music.

For buyers, the format is easy to place: a specialty act built around recognizable songs, mariachi elements, and stage comedy, with experience in both intimate rooms and large-scale party environments.
