About

Miranda Ramos is a San Diego, CA singer, San Diego Music Award nominee, and award-winning performer with deep roots in country music. She has been singing professionally for most of her life and is known for powerhouse vocals, a soulful sound, and a style that stays grounded in country.

With The Miranda Ramos Band, she performs original material alongside crowd favorites in a full-band live format built around her lead vocals and stage presence. The result is a country-focused act that balances classic influence with a more modern sound.

For buyers looking for a smaller-footprint option, Miranda is also available as an acoustic duet. That format suits more intimate venues, special events, and settings where a stripped-down performance is the better fit.

Miranda also performs as lead vocalist in ALT2K, a '90s/2000s cover band centered on hits from that era. Across her full band, acoustic duet, and ALT2K work, she offers buyers a clear range of live options while staying rooted in strong lead vocals and an audience-ready set.

Short bio
