Murdërone

Los Angeles Motörhead experience built for loud, fast, no-filler rock shows

Cello Live

About

Murdërone is a Los Angeles Motörhead experience, built around the volume, speed, grit, and live attitude that define the band's legacy. The set is designed for rock and metal audiences, with tight pacing, strong stage energy, and zero filler.

The lineup features Cello on vocals and bass, Ty on guitar, and Rafael on drums. Together, they deliver a hard-hitting live show suited to clubs, festivals, private events, and rock nights.

Murdërone is built for venues and promoters looking for a direct, high-impact tribute experience. The band has performed at The Whisky a Go Go, which described the show as pure force from start to finish, keeping the crowd engaged and giving people a reason to stay late and return for the next show.

Based in Los Angeles, Murdërone is available for booking inquiries across the U.S. Contact the band directly for venue, event, and booking details.
