Pollywog Crew

About

Pollywog Crew is a Los Angeles-based live tribute act dedicated to the Beastie Boys. The group formed in 2012, shortly after the passing of Adam Yauch (MCA), to honor his legacy and keep the spirit of the band's music alive.

The members came into the project with established roots in the local rap community, both fronting their own groups and deejaying for artists including KRS-One and Raekwon the Chef of Wu-Tang. That background shapes the show. Rather than leaning on gimmicks or the Beastie Boys' early frat-boy image, Pollywog Crew approaches the material with a real rap presence built through years in hip-hop culture.

Their set is built around the music, attitude, and live energy associated with the Beastie Boys. The show covers both well-known anthems and deeper cuts, with a focus on delivering the rebellious fun and sound that defined the group while staying grounded in hip-hop's core.

For buyers looking for a Beastie Boys tribute with a direct, performance-first approach, Pollywog Crew is easy to place: a Los Angeles act centered on live delivery, recognizable material, and a clear connection to the culture behind the songs.
