RUNNING HOT

Los Angeles Rolling Stones tribute for festivals, venues, private events, and community celebrations

About

Running Hot is a Los Angeles tribute to The Rolling Stones, founded in 2007 and focused on the band's blues, classic rock, and rock 'n' roll repertoire.

The setlist moves from raw blues beginnings and early hits to timeless classics, iconic arena anthems, and rare B-side cuts. The band brings authentic Stones sound, style, and attitude to a live presentation shaped by vintage tones, tight musicianship, swagger, grit, and groove.

Running Hot is suited to music festivals, street fairs, concert venues, clubs, corporate and private events, community celebrations, and fundraisers. The lineup features Javier Garcell on vocals, Jun Yokota and Dan Hess on guitar, Javen Borgwardt on drums, and David Pratt on bass.

The band opened the Redondo Beach Pier Summer Concert and accepts booking inquiries through its website or Facebook page.
