The Band Europa

The Band Europa

About

The Band Europa is a power trio based in Orlando, Florida, performing a wide range of music from old German polkas and sing-alongs to current country. The group's sound includes accordion with Midi, trumpet, guitar, violin, drums, and vocal harmonies, delivered with a strong groove.

Founded in February 1994 by Hans (John) Kolbrich and Milan Dvorecky, the band has grown into a nationally acclaimed act with fans ranging in age from 5 to 95, from Montana to Miami.

Their largest performance venue is the City of Orange, California's International Street Fair, which draws an average attendance of 700,000 over the 3-day Labor Day Weekend.
