The Dalton Gazette Experience

Soulful vocals, rhythmic guitar and the energy of a full band.

About

The Dalton Gazette Experience performs a rich, full-band live set led by Dalton Gazette on lead vocals, guitar and rhythmic percussion. The format extends beyond a traditional solo acoustic performance.

Originally from Temple, Texas, and professionally based in Oceanside, California, Dalton Gazette performs throughout Southern California, including San Diego, Orange County, Temecula and surrounding desert communities.

The repertoire combines feel-good classic rock, alternative rock, reggae, soul and funk, with influences ranging from Jimi Hendrix, Pink Floyd, Led Zeppelin and Tom Petty to Jack Johnson and Bill Withers. Dalton Gazette reads the room and adapts the performance to the audience, creating anything from a laid-back atmosphere to a setting where an entire crowd sings along. The act specializes in luxury resorts, wineries, country clubs, weddings, private parties and corporate events. Its goal is to uplift people, create memorable experiences, and keep guests happy, engaged and staying longer.

Dalton Gazette opened for Flyleaf featuring Lacey Sturm on their 20th Anniversary Tour at three sold-out shows at the House of Blues Anaheim, performing before audiences of over 1,500 people. With over seven years of professional performance experience, notable venues include Rancho Valencia Resort & Spa, Hotel del Coronado, Omni La Costa Resort & Spa, L'Auberge Del Mar, Estancia La Jolla,

The Seabird Resort, Hyatt Regency Mission Bay, Lakehouse Resort, Wilson Creek Winery, Vitagliano Winery and Peltzer Winery.
