The Fever Live

About

Formed in 2006, The Fever is made up of experienced professional musicians who perform in formats ranging from solo up to a 9-piece band. Over the years, they have become a close-knit group, which supports a flexible and well-worked live setup.

Their approach combines strong technical skill with a friendly, fun, and playful feel. That versatility allows them to cover a wide range of styles, making them a practical fit for buyers who need music that can shift with the tone of an event.

Their repertoire includes traditional classical, jazz, soul, funk, Motown, classic rock, soft rock, alternative rock, 70s, 80s, 90s, 2000s, older pop, modern pop, indie, Latin, bluegrass, and newgrass.

The overall feel can move from elegant to high-energy, as well as uplifting or nostalgic, depending on the setting. The result is a live act built to help guests connect and enjoy the event.
