About

The South Pasadena Transit Authority celebrates the music of the great rock band, Chicago! Horns and vocal harmonies tight and arrangements true to the original recordings.
What sets us apart? Two lead vocalists, one female and one male, trading lines and sharing the spotlight. It's the music you know by heart, with a fresh dimension that makes our tribute distinctive.
We've been making music together for more than 18 years, and it shows in our sound, our chemistry, and the energy we bring to every performance.
We also have two additional sets packed with R&B, classic rock, and a little disco—all built for dancing!
See and hear us in action:

We're available for festivals, concerts in the park, club dates, and other events where great live music brings people together. Let's talk about what you have planned!
We look forward to hearing from you and, as always, we thank you for your support!
