The Wankers

Britpop - and Beyond

About

The Wankers are a U.S.-based Britpop tribute with a set that reaches well past one band. Based in Montclair, New Jersey, they lean into the UK angle with a show built around classic songs from across the Britpop and post-punk/pop spectrum.

Their repertoire includes music associated with Coldplay, Blur, Oasis, Radiohead, Supergrass, The Smiths, The Cure, Echo and The Bunnymen, The Clash, The Cranberries, Depeche Mode, Elvis Costello, and Duran Duran, with more in the mix.

For buyers, the pitch is straightforward: a cover band focused on recognizable UK-driven catalog material rather than a single-artist tribute. If you want a set centered on Britpop and related classics, The Wankers make that format easy to understand at a glance.

Short bio

The Wankers are a U.S.-based Britpop and beyond tribute from Manchester by way of N.J. Their repertoire spans Coldplay, Blur, Oasis, Radiohead, Supergrass, The Smiths, The Cure, The Clash, and more.

Full press bio

The Wankers are a U.S.-based Britpop and beyond tribute, straight from Manchester by way of N.J. Rather than focusing on one band, they perform a 30-band tribute covering classic UK acts including Coldplay, Blur, Oasis, Radiohead, Supergrass, The Smiths, The Cure, Echo and the Bunnymen, The Clash, The Cranberries, Depeche Mode, Elvis Costello, Duran Duran, and more. Their set is built around classic after classic from the era when UK bands ruled the world, giving buyers a clear Britpop-focused act with a broad repertoire.
