Too Hype Crew

Tribute to 80s to early 2000s Hip Hop

About

Too Hype Crew is a Chicago cover band focused on classic hip hop and R&B from the 80s, 90s, and early 2000s. The band is built for buyers who need music that reaches across age groups and backgrounds, with a format that fits festival and corporate settings.

The act is a seven-piece, all-live band accompanied by choreographed Fly Girls. Their set centers on hip hop party classics that audiences know and love, but rarely get to see performed live. The show is respectful to the music while staying loose, interactive, and full of impromptu comedic moments.

For festival and corporate events, Too Hype Crew also keeps the show family friendly. Language, song selection, costumes, and onstage antics are tailored to the event, giving buyers a clear option for mixed crowds and varied settings.

Too Hype Crew performs around the country and has opened for Nelly, Flo Rida, RUN DMC, Digital Underground, Vanilla Ice, Tone Loc, Big Sean, Naughty by Nature, Rob Base & DJ EZ Rock, Lil Jon, Jason Derulo, and Biz Markie. Corporate clients include Google, Microsoft, Anheuser-Busch, GrubHub, Wilson Dow, Miller-Coors, and TransUnion.
