Vulgar Display - the PanterA Experience

Pantera tribute delivering the aggression, precision, and intensity of a 90s metal live show

About

Vulgar Display - The Pantera Experience is a California tribute act built around Pantera's 90s metal sound and live intensity.

The band formed with one goal: to recreate the aggression, precision, and power groove of a Pantera show. The set covers essential tracks from Cowboys from Hell through Far Beyond Driven, with a strong emphasis on the sound and attitude that defined the era.

Bryce Lomonaco handles vocals, Todd Mitchell plays guitar, Corey Howell is on drums, and Tyler Rollins plays bass. Together, they focus on the riffs, drum fills, screams, tone, and groove associated with Pantera.

Vulgar Display is currently booking venues and events in Southern California and beyond. For buyers looking for a focused 90s metal tribute centered on Pantera's essential material, the act offers a clear fit for the bill.
